Note.—In some cases, and in almost all for the year 1847, the accounts have not been received, but the amount authorized has been inserted. The payments to be made are generally in the currency of the country; the amount sterling may be rather more or less, according to the rate of exchange of the day when the bill may be drawn upon the Treasury.

This Return may be considered as a continuation of a Return laid before the Committee on Miscellaneous Estimates.

John Bidwell,

Superintendent of the Consular Service.

Foreign Office, July 1848.

A RETURN of all Payments made in Foreign Countries in each of the years 1844, 1845, 1846, 1847, under the Act 6 Geo. IV, c. 87, to Ministers and Congregations, for Churchyards and other Church purposes, stating the Names and Places where paid, and the Amounts paid to each at each place, in each year, and the aggregate sum in each year.

Presented to the House of Commons in pursuance of their Address of May 9, 1848.
